Mr. and Mrs. William H. McCormick left today for Portland where they will spend the winter.

Eighteen former college men forgot for a time last evening that they were just ordinary men of the world pursuing prosaic vocations and lived again back in the days when they were undergraduates. The occasion was a banquet in the Hotel Pendleton dining room for members of national Greek letter fraternities and marked the entrance of a Pan-Hellenic club into the social life of Pendleton. The eighteen men present represented eight different fraternities and more than that number of colleges scattered over the United States from Maine to Oregon and from Minnesota to Virginia. Nor were the banqueters all of one age either, their years of graduation ranging from 1871 to 1914.

So successful was the initial affair that the fraternity men have arranged to hold weekly club luncheons at the Hotel Pendleton, the management having agreed to reserve a table each Friday between the hours of 12 and 1. In addition to these weekly luncheons, the club plans to give a banquet each month and other social affairs. Besides the eighteen present last evening, there are a half dozen other fraternities men in the city and quite a number over the county who will affiliate with the organization. Still others are in college at present and, on their return for the Christmas holidays, the club plans to give a banquet for their benefit.

Those present last evening included Charles F. Colesworthy, Clarence M. Bishop, Arle C. Hampton, Dan P. Smythe, Dr. Guy L. Boyden, Omer E. Smith, Dr. L. Ballard, John Dickson, Edmund Mable, Merle R. Chessman, Lester Hamley, James S. Johns, Roland Oliver, Cecil Cole, James Bowler, Westbrook Dickinson, Glen Storle and Lyman Rice.

Miss Mildred Berkeley entertained a few friends informally last evening at her home on Thompson street.

Among the events of next week will be a musical evening at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, beginning at 8 o'clock. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Epworth League.

Mrs. Lee Moorhouse is in Portland as a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Oliver P. Morton, 676 East Eighteenth street. She plans to visit there three weeks.

The Current Literature Club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Power on Lewis street yesterday with Mrs. Roy Raley and Mrs. Power as hostesses. The afternoon was pleasantly and profitably spent in the study of poetry. The program was as follows: Paper, "Present Day Poetry, Its New Spirit, Its Truth and Realism, Its Paeon for Justice," Mrs. J. A. Fee.

"Poems, Classical and Romantic," "Poems of Protest," Mrs. G. M. Rice. Two Songs, "God Remembers and the World Forgets," "Hill Lill Feller," Mrs. Charles Bond. "Poems: Lyrics and Poems of Nature: Philosophical and Mystical Poetry," Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy. Poetic Play, "The Piper," Mrs. A. C. Hampton.

Sketch of Rudinard Tayon, Mrs. A. J. McAllister. Reading from Chitra, Mrs. James Johns. Two Songs from McDowell, "To a Wild Rose," "Thy Beaming Eyes," Mrs. J. R. Dockson.

The Busy Bee Club met at the home of Mrs. C. S. Howard, 1614 West Webb street, yesterday and spent a very enjoyable afternoon with needlework. A large number of the members were present. Delightful refreshments were served late in the afternoon, the hostess being assisted by Mesdames Morton, Pierce and Hopper.

Mrs. W. S. Payne of Weston visited in the city during the week at the home of her father, J. B. Kennedy.

Mrs. R. E. Farnsworth of Weston, in spending the weekend with her mother, Mrs. M. M. Myrick. Mrs. Farnsworth was accompanied back by Mrs. Rena Adams who has been her guest during the week.

Mrs. Walter Adams has had as her guests Mrs. A. B. Steele and daughter, Elizabeth, of Athena.

Miss Edna Wiesler has been visiting during the week with Miss Bertha Anger in Walla Walla.

At 7:30 this morning a quiet wedding of two well known young Pendleton people was celebrated in the offices of Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes. Ray Martin taking as his bride Miss Eva Linsner. Only a few friends were present to witness the ceremony and these friends immediately afterwards succeeded in escorting them in roundabout ways to the depot where they were able to board the train for Walla Walla without being detected by other friends lying in wait. The young couple will spend a few days in Walla Walla before returning here to make their home. Mr. Martin is proprietor of the Pendleton Clear Co., and his bride has been a resident of Pendleton for a number of years.

The Portland Journal says: "Of especial interest tomorrow will be the debut reception given by Mrs. Thomas G. Halley for her daughter, Miss Genevieve Halley, at their residence in Wayne street, near King. Several hundred guests have been bidden to call between the hours from 4 to 7. Miss Halley is a most attractive and talented girl, having studied extensively in painting. She recently returned home after an absence of seven months passed in California, where she has been continuing her studies."

Miss Sylvia McCarty, a spring graduate of the Pendleton high school who is teaching this year at Ring, came in this morning to spend the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morrison of Helix, passed through Pendleton today on their way to Portland for a visit.

The New Baby is World's Wonder

Every tiny infant makes life's perspective wider and brighter. And whatever there is to enhance its arrival and to ease and comfort the expectant mother should be given attention. Among the real helpful things is an external abdominal application known as "Mother's Friend." It is so well thought of by women that most drug stores throughout the United States carry "Mother's Friend" as one of their staple and reliable remedies. It is applied to the abdominal muscles to relieve the strain on ligaments and tendons.

In a little book are described more fully the many reasons why "Mother's Friend" has been a friend indeed to women for more than two generations. This book was prepared not only to aid the inexperienced but to enable so many women to have at hand the timely hints, suggestions and helps in concise and neatly printed form for ready reference. It should be in all homes. "Mother's Friend" may be had of almost any druggist but if you fail to find it write us direct and also write for book to Bradfield Regulator Co., 303 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Georgia.

800 Horses Are Burned.
NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 14.—Virtually all of the 800 horses on board the British steamship Rembrandt were burned to death when the ship took fire off the Virginia capes Monday, according to information reaching here last night. The Rembrandt was bound from Baltimore to St. Nazaire, France, and the animals are understood to have been intended for the armies of the allies.

It was reported here that Captain Edlin of the Rembrandt had notified officials of the Lamport & Holt line.

COLDS

An up-to-date remedy for colds. That is what Peruna is. In successful use over 50 years.

Colds are caught in many ways: Ill ventilated rooms; rooms that have direct draughts; crowded rooms; damp houses; stuffy school rooms; offices ill heated.

A dose of Peruna at the right time, at the first symptom of cold, before the bones begin to ache, before the sore throat manifests itself, or the cough, or the discharge from the nose, just a dose or two of Peruna before these symptoms begin is generally sufficient. But after the cold is once established with the above symptoms prominent, a bottle of Peruna, or maybe two, will be necessary.

"For several years I have been troubled with colds at each change of season. I took Peruna and have not been troubled with the slightest cold this entire season," Mr. Harry Fisher, 1928 Mosher St., Baltimore, Md.

"I give the children Peruna if they have a cold, and it always relieves them," Mrs. L. D. Hayes, 1937 Druid Hill Ave., Baltimore, Md.

"When I feel a cold coming on I take a little Peruna, and it does me good," Mr. Charles S. Many, 12 Water St., Ossining, N. Y.

"No family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for colds," Mrs. M. P. Jones, Burnside Springs, Ky.

owners of the ship, that he had reason to believe the vessel was fired by German spies who were members of the crew. The captain is said to have asserted that threats against the ship were made before she steamed from Baltimore Saturday. No confirmation of these reports was available.

The Rembrandt was 10 miles off Cape Henry, disposing of the carcasses of the horses. She will proceed to Newport News for repairs. Forward compartments of the ship are reported badly damaged.

When the fire was discovered the ship was 200 miles off the capes. The smoke was so dense that the crew could not reach the flames and the stampeded animals were left to their fate. The ship's hold was flooded and the hatches closed, smothering out the fire.

Seafight Site Unmarked
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Eduardo Suarez, Chilean Ambassador here was informed by his government that Chilean ships sent out to search had not found the slightest trace of the Monmouth or the Good Hope, the British cruisers reported lost in the recent sea fight with a German fleet off the coast of Chile.

On their return to Valparaiso the vessels reported that they had searched carefully over the zone of battle without finding a bit of wreckage.

Employer Asks For Aid
ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 14.—Whether the proprietor of a business concern which has a number of employees can receive an employes' privileges from the State Industrial Accident Commission if he meets with an accident is a technical question to be presented at the present term of the Circuit Court, according to a motion which was filed by Albert Abraham in behalf of E. F. Lang, of Rice Creek.

Mr. Lang lost all but the little finger of his left hand while operating a machine in his sawmill last August. While sole owner of the mill, he declares his name was on the books as an employee and he drew wages similar to those of the two men whom he hired.

The law creating the accident commission went into effect in June, and Mr. Lang has complied with such provisions as would bring his business under the law. Although he was injured at the time, he paid the first premium to the commission when due on the basis of being an employee.

Later he applied to the commission for his insurance, but his claim was denied on the ground of being an employer. Mr. Abraham believes, however that a rule made by the commission providing that an employer may also be insured by filing out a blank to that effect admits that the employer is entitled to be considered under the law.

La Grande Paving Levy Upheld.
LA GRANDE, Ore., Nov. 14.—After more than three years of litigation, the city was upheld by a decision of Circuit Court Judge Knowles in its paving assessments against the property on North Second street. The amount due now is about $14,214.87. Since 1911, when the pavement was laid, the city has paid in the neighborhood of $2700 interest.

Mrs. O. S. Fowler-Chumot, who will begin a series of four free lectures on "Health's Deepest Laws," tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at Oregon Theater.
